

Whose Job Is It? activity cards

| | | | | |
|--|---|---|---|---|
| Checks the amount of chloroform in parts per million at water plant. | Meets with construction site attendee about parking lot drainage. | Recycles all plastic containers and used motor oil. | Keeps the storm drains clean and clear of debris. | Sets fines and penalties for point source polluters (like factories). |
| Cleans up pet waste from the yard and puts it into the trash can. | Tests well samples for pesticides, nitrates, and phosphates. | Turns off the faucet while brushing teeth. | Visits school to discuss storm water pollution. | Drinks water from a glass instead of plastic bottle. |
| Monitors creeks and storm drains for point source pollutants. | Uses natural products that biodegrade. | Meets in public forums with concerned citizens about water quality. | Monitors the cleanliness of water stored in water towers. | Uses ladybugs and environmentally friendly herbicides on gardens. |