

Government anticipation guide

Before		Statement	After
True	False	1. The state government represents the highest level of government.	True	False
True	False	2. The Constitution divides the government's powers into legislative, executive, and judicial branches.	True	False
True	False	3. The U.S. Congress makes laws for the entire nation.	True	False
True	False	4. The governor of North Carolina is responsible for commanding the U.S. military.	True	False
True	False	5. The court system is a part of the judicial branch of government.	True	False
True	False	6. The Supreme Court is the highest court in the land.	True	False
True	False	7. The Direct Assembly has state legislative powers.	True	False
True	False	8. All American citizens are eligible for government offices.	True	False
True	False	9. The U.S. and N.C. Constitutions clearly specify the responsibilities and qualifications of each branch of government.	True	False
True	False	10. The legislative branch is divided into two houses.	True	False