On Track Learning Quiz: Materials Resiliency

1.	List two pieces of information you learned during the lab that would help you select the safest materials if you were designing seat belts.

2. If you were hired to create the cord for an amusement park bungee jump, what are two components of the bungee cord that would be important for rider safety? Briefly explain your answer.